

Relationships

Good relationships are _____

People with good friendships are _____

It would improve my relationships if I _____

Relationships are _____

If I had a great partner, I would _____

If I had the right team around me, we could _____

In my culture, family is _____

To have fulfilling relationships I would need to _____

My parents think relationships are _____

If relationships didn't matter _____

My colleagues think relationships are _____

Something I know for sure about good relationships is that _____

My friends think relationships are _____

I build warm and trusting relationships when I _____

If I had no friends I would _____

Friendship is _____ Strong relationships make it possible to _____

In order to have rich connections with people I'd want to _____

If I had harmonious relationships with work colleagues, we could _____